

FW: UNESCO Chair in Bioethics International Panel Discussion Webinar- Medical Ethics in the wake of COVID 19

Dear Professor Ming Kuang,

I write to thank you on behalf of the Chair Holder UNESCO Chair in Bioethics Haifa, Professor Mary Mathew and myself personally for graciously giving your time and your knowledge with diligence to this important issue in Medical education on a Sunday.

I apologise for the extra time that we took up, beyond what was planned. I appreciate the courtesy and respect you extended in staying on in spite of your other schedules on that day.

Your comments and view certainly added to the high quality of the deliberations and indeed was appreciated in the feedback received.

We are delighted that this International Panel Discussion webinar indeed has restated global solidarity at this challenging time. The over 800 registered participants transcended from all continents, North and South Hemispheres and indeed every regions of our world exemplifies this.

I will be in contact with you regarding your role with the education department council of the International program of the UNESCO Chair in Bioethics and in establishing a UNESCO Chair in Bioethics centre at your University.

I look forward to our continued collaboration in the mission of integrated bioethics education in medical education.

Best wishes

Russell
